A BASEBALL GAME. The match game for a ball between the two teams of the American (East Bridgeport) club, was played on Saturday afternoon, being postponed from Friday in consequence of the storm. The respective nines were marshalled by D. Conger and C. Ruperts, the former winning the ball in a handsome manner. The club shows constant and steady improvement and are already thoroughly versed in the healthful and manly game. We annex the score of the game played on Saturday: CONGER.

DISGRACEFUL OUTRAGE. A young man named Edward Sherian, who had been paying a visit at the house of a relative in Arch street, last evening, started to go to another house on Washington avenue about 10 o'clock, and when near the Catholic church, was set upon by two young loafers who beat him in a most influman manner, so badly, indeed, that he is confined to his bed, and still bleeds freely from the cuts about his beed and face. The two blackguards are known, and we hope Sheridan will appear against them and give them the full benefit of the law.

suppressing the "undesirable citizens" at the Locomobile shop, for daring to exercise their constitutional right of free speech.

Oh! Clifford, how could you be so careless and reckless as to come out there and then and show your bare naked fist? Why didn't you use strat-egy like John The King? If you had only got a squad of the Burnes Detec-tive anarchists, they would have picked a nice little fight up with the peaceful bunch of workers, and then Clif, you could have clubbed and bay-onetted them with your police and mil-Yesterday afternoon about 20 min-utes before six o'clock, as Mr. James name of "Law and Order."
